HAS UNCLE SAM ORDERED RESIGNATION OF ZELAYA?

It Is Reported in London That Nicaraguan President's Reign Will Soon End.

LONDON, Dec. 10—The United States government has demanded formally the resignation of President Zelaya of Nicaragua, according to a cablegram from Nicaragua received by a business house here yesterday.

The message adds this information communicated by Zelaya himself, who said that his resignation from the presidency would take effect likely at the end of December.

BLUEFIELDS, Nicaragua, via New Orleans, Dec. 9.—With the expected battle at Rama between the forces of Gen. Estrada and of President Zelaya, under command of Gen. Oseja, imminent, Estrada's position at Rama is considered impregnable.

Meanwhile he has sent detachments into the mountains west of Rama which have repeatedly met the government troops in small skirmishes. Perhaps the provisionals retreated to within Rama, laying waste the country as they retired and leaving Oseja nothing with which to feed his men. It was not Estrada's policy to contest the roads to Rama, but to bring on a general engagement at that point. With Managua 150 miles away and the country between a waste, he calculated that Oseja would be compelled to risk an attack or to starve. His plans seem to have worked well. Oseja's forces, half starved, mutinous and sick from the terrible march over the mountains, are coming in front of Rama. Estrada, confident, assured, awaits the attack behind his fortifications. At Bluefields 1,800 reinforcements await his call, the trip by the Rama river requiring but seven hours.

Whether Oseja has been strengthened by men from Managua is not known definitely. Spies have brought word to the opposing army that Zelaya is afraid to risk more men, fearing that they will desert to Estrada. He has soldiers and equipment in abundance at Managua, but it is said that he does not trust his generals. Oseja, it is said, is an exception. His men, as a reward of victory, have been promised all the loot they can collect in two days at Rama.

"TO H—LL WITH GRINGOES; SHOOT ALL YOU CAPTURE."

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 10.—A cable from Panama says:

Positive information was received here yesterday that more than a month ago Zelaya issued instructions to his military commanders to shoot every American caught fighting in the army of the revolutionists. Some of Zelaya's military officers protested against this order and warned him that trouble with the United States would result.

"To h—ll with the gringoes," Zelaya replied "Shoot every one you can capture."

The gunboat Vicksburg, which has been stationed at Corinto ever since the Nicaraguan trouble assumed an acute stage, has been reinforced and there are now four American warships in the Corinto harbor. The Vicksburg needs coal and now that reinforcements have reached Corinto she probably will come to Panama to replenish her fuel supplies.

Will Locate in Gainesville.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Jones of Harriman, Tenn., after a trip through South Florida with a view of securing a future home, have returned to Gainesville, having decided that this was the best location in the State, and Gainesville one of the nicest and most refined cities.

Mr. Jones has purchased property, and will soon erect a comfortable home. He and his estimable wife will be gladly welcomed, and it is hoped that, like the majority, the longer they stay the better they will be pleased.

Ministers Impressed With "Servant in the House"

The Atlanta Journal has started an interesting experiment in the way of getting criticisms on a play from the various forms of society. "The Servant in the House" is the play in question. It is on the boards for the first time in Atlanta and is being presented by a first-class troupe. The Journal issued a hundred invitations to bankers, club women, school teachers and laborers, one hundred for each class and one night for each. Every night was devoted to ministers. Of the hundred invited only seven attended, though a number sent regrets and said previous engagements would prevent their attending. Among those who was Bishop Nelson of Georgia, one of the most learned and eloquent divines and who a number of years preached in the old Episcopal church. Those who attended were Rev. C. B. Wilmer, formerly rector of the Episcopal church, Ocala, beloved by all who knew him, the especial friend and companion of the present rector of this city, who will never forget his kindness and thoughtfulness to them. Rev. Wilmer is now the rector of St. Andrews' Episcopal church, Atlanta, and one of the most eminent preachers in the Gate City. The other three were one from the Universalist church, another from the Unitarian church and the third a reader in the Christian Science church, Atlanta. Their criticisms were unanimous that plays as clean as "The Servant in the House" and as admirably presented pointed a moral and impressed a lesson that stood for all the better, truer and nobler impulses of humanity and mankind and in it it could become the hand maid of the church in instilling into the minds and hearts of all Christ's mission on earth. All the ministers who attended said those who declined The Journal's invitation missed a rare treat of enjoyment and of becoming better acquainted with what the better dramas were trying to do for the people. In the case of the women more than half of the invitations were accepted. The Atlanta Journal's idea is certainly a unique way of obtaining unbiased criticisms of a play.—Ocala Star.

NEGROES DID SHOOTING.

Military Court Said to Have Conclusive Evidence to This Effect.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Conclusive evidence is said to have been secured by the military court of inquiry into the "shooting up" of Brownsville, Texas, that members of the Twenty-fifth infantry, colored, who were within the fort fired on the town at the time their companions were racing through the streets of the Texas town, shooting right and left. This evidence, it is reported, is considered conclusive.

None of the members of the court of inquiry would discuss the matter, but it is intimated that a demand for the abolition of the negro troops, which are provided by law, will be made by the Southern delegations in Congress. Thus the bitter debate that marked the final days of the Roosevelt administration threatens to be renewed.

The evidence discovered by the officers who compose the court is said to be susceptible and complete proof. Certain members, it is reported, made personal examinations of buildings across the road from the fort in Brownsville. They discovered bullet holes in the sides of these houses. Continuing their investigation, they discovered bullets which were of the regulation army design. Following back the line of fire, as shown by the track of the bullet, the marksmen could have been nowhere else than within the barracks.

The Congressional defenders of the negro infantrymen maintained that the only firing in the town was done by the men of the Twenty-fifth who had broken parole, and that former President Roosevelt, in discharging two companies without individual military trial, had worked a severe injustice on both the companies and the regiment.

It is understood that the court, which is now here and has practically concluded its examinations, will permit such discharged members of the regiment as care to do so to appear before it and testify. The hearings will be held here.

DIGS BAIT FOR MASTER.

Accommodating Canine Went Out and Procured Can Full of Worms.

The DeFuniak Herald comes no fish story this year, but it lands the plum for dog stories as it never was landed before. Incline your ear three minutes:

A sportsman can no more keep from prevaricating than a poultryman. It is as impossible for a poultryman to talk to you for two minutes about his fowls without stretching the truth to the breaking point as it is for snow to keep from melting in the sunshine. And a sportsman is just as bad.

One evening last week a bunch of men were sitting in the DeFuniak Drug Company's store when the conversation turned upon hunting, fishing, guns, dogs, etc. After two or three of the local sportsmen and a drummer or two had divested themselves of some pretty stunning and unreasonable experiences, a drummer who had been saying nothing took the floor and remarked:

"Gentlemen, most of you are strangers to me, and I shall therefore not feel offended if some of you take what I am about to tell you with a grain of salt, but what I am going to tell you is true, and I can prove it by Harley Cawthon.

"I once owned a dog, gentlemen, which was the most intelligent animal I ever saw. When that dog saw me go out with my rifle, it would hunt nothing but deer. If I took my shot gun, the dog hunted nothing but birds.

"One day I had a notion to go fishing. For an hour or two I was busy getting my fishing tackle together. When I reached my front gate, there stood that noble dog with a can full of bait worms which he had dug."

Democrats Elect Senator H. D. Money Caucus Chief

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 10.—In caucus yesterday afternoon the Democratic Senators elected Senator H. D. Money of Mississippi as minority leader of the Senate to succeed Senator Culberson of Texas, whose resignation was presented yesterday.

Senator Bacon of Georgia had been mentioned very prominently for the chairmanship of the caucus, but would not consent to be a candidate in any sense if it involved a contest with Senator Money.

Senator Bacon had been approached with an offer of the chairmanship when it was understood by some of the leaders that Senator Money, on account of recent ill health, might not be a candidate. The Senator from Georgia replied that should such circumstances develop he would consent to be a candidate, and not otherwise.

Senator Money, who is now serving the last year of his term, has been in the Senate twelve years and was vice-chairman of the caucus when Senator Culberson resigned.

MILLIONAIRE'S WIFE BLUSHES AS TELEGRAM IS READ.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Young W. Gould Brokaw's telegraphic admonishment to his wife to be careful whom she kissed, crimsoned her cheeks and brought tears to her eyes yesterday as it was read in the Supreme Court at Mineola, L. I. Yet this telegram was introduced by her counsel with others in an attempt to show the young millionaire's insane jealousy and unreasonableness as justifying the separation for which Mrs. Brokaw is suing, with $60,000 a year alimony.

"You know what I told you about kissing the doctor. When he attempts to kiss you again, tell him what you have promised your husband. You know if he kisses you I should not want to kiss you again."

Said She Wanted to Elope.

Mrs. Brokaw hung her head as the message was read, and blushed furiously. By agreement the name of the doctor was not read in court.

Mrs. Brokaw had previously told of a luncheon at the Hotel St. Regis at which a Dr. Chapman was a guest and which her husband, she testified, had interrupted and made a scene, accusing her of wanting to elope with the doctor. The doctor on that occasion, she said, had threatened to have Brokaw arrested for using unbecoming language.

Incidents of the honeymoon trip through France, as related by the plaintiff, otherwise enlivened yesterday's proceedings. Smashing doors to get in her room, excessive drinking and a cheerful invitation of his to "come and look at a new gun and some cartridges I have for you," were only a few of the alleged occurrences she testified that made her life miserable.

Telegrams and letters between husband and wife, as introduced by Mrs. Brokaw's counsel, occupied a prominent part of yesterday's session. The entire bundle as exhibited represented about $10,000 in telegraph tolls, it was estimated.

The defendant's lawyer volunteered the explanation that Mr. Brokaw sent sometimes twenty to thirty messages a day, and that his wife replied with 200 and 300-word messages, which she marked 'collect."

"At Tours, after he had taken six or possibly more drinks, and after I pleaded with him not to act so, he abused me frightfully," testified Mrs. Brokaw. "He called me worse names than ever before and told me to get out of the car, as it belonged to him. I went to my room. He came up and forced me to go down to the dining-room. A physician sat nearby. Then he leaned over and said in a voice heard by several diners, 'I want you to stop looking at that man.'

"I begged him not to make a scene over nothing, and when he continued I went to my room. I became very ill. I locked the door and refused to let him into my room. Then he broke in the door. He said he was boss; that I would return to Paris early in the morning with him regardless of my illness."

Other narratives were told by the witness, culminating, she said, in his departing and leaving her without funds, with the remark that she could get back to America "any way she could." She subsequently met him in Paris, however.

THE FIRST COLD DAY.

Gainesville Experienced First Ice and Frost of Season Friday.

The people of Gainesville experienced the first natural ice and frost of the season Friday morning, when the temperature dropped to thirty-one degrees—one degree below freezing, according to the Government thermometer.

Local Weather Observer J. Hovey Bell stated that during the early morning the thermometer registered thirty-one, and as late as 7 o'clock, when the official record was taken, it was thirty-two degrees, which is the freezing point.

There was a heavy frost and considerable ice, but the absence of wind made it appear warmer than the previous day.

No damage is anticipated to vegetation, except possibly to beans, which are now at the tenderest stage of growth. The cold will prove rather a benefit to many crops, especially lettuce, of which there is a large acreage in this section.

Death of Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Malinda Johnson of Lake Butler, fifty-six years of age, died at the Odd Fellows' Sanitarium at 5 o'clock Thursday evening, the cause of death being a complication of diseases.

Deceased was an old resident of this county, and was well known here. She removed to Lake Butler, however, several years ago, where she has since made her home. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and a faithful and conscientious Christian.

Deceased leaves three daughters and two sons, to whom the sympathy of friends is extended.

Had a Big Time.

By special invitation, a number of the young folks of the city paid L. E. Means a visit Thursday night, the occasion being the annual cane-grinding.

Everything was in full blast when the party arrived, and the hospitality extended by the clever host made all feel that they were glad they went.

At a late hour the party, full of cane juice and good cheer, bade Mr. Means and family a cheerful good-night, after voting him their heartiest appreciation for the courtesy extended.

HIS FIRST VISIT.

Jas. Doig, Resident of Fifty Years, in Sheriff's Office First Time.

"Well, this is the first time I have been in the sheriff's office, and I have been living in Gainesville a long time," remarked James Doig, as he was invited into Sheriff Ramsey's office a day or two ago, when the weather was cool, and an inviting fire greeted him.

Mr. Doig, whom everybody in Alachua county and the city of Gainesville knows and looks upon as a friend, had actually put his foot into the sheriff's office for the first time in half a century, according to his own story.

"Tell me why you haven't been in the office, or the office of any of my list of predecessors," remarked Sheriff Ramsey. "I am aware that all or the majority of my predecessors were good friends of yours, and I cannot understand it."

"Well," replied Mr. Doig, as he stretched out his lower limbs and warmed his feet before a cheerful fire, "it has been this: I have just been too busy to fool around the court house, and I never had any business with the sheriff or the courts, hence I didn't come. That's the only reason."

This is certainly a peculiar condition since Mr. Doig is one of the pioneer citizens of this city. He came to Gainesville when there was nothing but a cross-road store or two, a postoffice and a blackjack thicket where the deer used to roam. He lived here long before the present elegant court house was constructed and, as he said, he had no business in the sheriff's office, therefore he stayed away.

Sheriff Ramsey appreciates the fact that he is the first sheriff upon whom Mr. Doig has ever made a personal call in the office.

DISTRICT DEPUTY WAS HERE.

The meeting of Gainesville Lodge No. 990, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, was honored Thursday night by the presence of District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler W. B. Thornton, who paid the lodge an official visit.

Owing to the fact that within the past few months the lodge has been meeting every other Thursday night, when members get the meeting nights confused, together with the fact that a number of Elks are absent from the city, the attendance was not as large as was desired, but Mr. Thornton accepted the situation as it was, and those who did attend thoroughly enjoyed his visit, as well as the brief but impressive address upon the occasion.

Thursday afternoon Mr. Thornton was taken around the city in an automobile by Col. Henry S. Chubb and others, when the party visited various places of interest.

Mr. Thornton was well pleased with Gainesville as a city, and complimented the enterprise of the people.

The Graves' Pleased.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Graves of York, Nebraska, who have been regular winter residents of Gainesville for several years, and who built a home three years ago on West Court street, No. 308, are more than ever pleased with Florida this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves are not pretentious, but they want things just right for their comfort. They own a magnificent home and farm out in the West, but Mr. Graves' health demands a change, hence they are located here.

Notwithstanding that he is accredit to having none too good health in the West, Mr. Graves laughs at this and says it is the "doctors' whims." But anyway, he declares that when he reaches his dear Southern sunny Florida home he begins to feel better right away, with the result that he enjoys his stay here—so does his friends and neighbors.

Mr. Graves' home here is as neat and comfortable as one would want, and he takes a great delight in keeping it clean and inviting. His neighbors are always glad to see him come.

Clothiers Were Busy.

The clothing merchants were grinning yesterday, the cause being extra good business in the form of heavy underwear and overcoats. Most everybody who did not own an overcoat and "had the price" kept them busy, with the result that there was a rush. If overcoats had been on the stock market at this time, and were subject to immediate delivery, the exchange thermometer would have been advanced several notches.

AFTER RECKLESS DRIVERS.

The practice of reckless driving in the vicinity of the Atlantic Coast Line depot upon the arrival of trains has caused a great deal of indignation among the people, with the result that one well-known citizen, who was assisting a lady on the train Thursday, came near knocking one of the drivers down with a stick, so close did he come to being run over.

This nuisance has been in practice for some time, but recently, since the carriages have been soliciting business from the west side of the train, it has become worse than ever. The drivers have no regard for the safety of passengers and pedestrians, with the result that they drive up wildly without noticing where they are going or whom they inconvenience.

This practice should be stopped, as it is not only a nuisance, but blocks the passageway of passengers getting on and off the trains.

Hunting Party Is Off.

A jolly hunting party comprising W. A. Strickland and Claude Stokes of Paradise, B. F. Hampton, J. D. Stringfellow, F. M. Cellon of this city, and Chas. W. Bartleson and A. H. King of Jacksonville, left Friday morning for the wilds of LaFayette county, where they will kill bear and other things for the next ten days or two weeks.

This is the jolliest, most determined aggregation which has invaded the historic swamps of the old Suwannee, made famous by song, for some time, and, as all are good marksmen, their friends are sure to hear of some remarkable results from the trip.

We are not in a position to vouch for the number of deer in the LaFayette hammocks bordering on the majestic Suwannee, but we will venture that the list will be at least considerably diminished before these hunters get through.

The Correct Time

To stop a cough or cold is just as soon as it starts—then there will be no danger of pneumonia or consumption. Just a few doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup taken at the start will stop the cough. If it has been running on for sometime the treatment will be longer, but the cure is sure. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

If it's printed stationery you want, The Sun office is the place to get it.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Young W. Gould Brokaw's telegraphic admonishment to his wife to be careful whom she kissed, crimsoned her cheeks and brought tears to her eyes yesterday as it was read in the Supreme Court at Mineola, L. I. Yet this telegram was introduced by her counsel with others in an attempt to show the young millionaire's insane jealousy and unreasonableness as justifying the separation for which Mrs. Brokaw is suing, with $60,000 a year alimony.

"You know what I told you about kissing the doctor. When he attempts to kiss you again, tell him what you have promised your husband. You know if he kisses you I should not want to kiss you again."

Said She Wanted to Elope.

Mrs. Brokaw hung her head as the message was read, and blushed furiously. By agreement the name of the doctor was not read in court.

Mrs. Brokaw had previously told of a luncheon at the Hotel St. Regis at which a Dr. Chapman was a guest and which her husband, she testified, had interrupted and made a scene, accusing her of wanting to elope with the doctor. The doctor on that occasion, she said, had threatened to have Brokaw arrested for using unbecoming language.

Incidents of the honeymoon trip through France, as related by the plaintiff, otherwise enlivened yesterday's proceedings. Smashing doors to get in her room, excessive drinking and a cheerful invitation of his to "come and look at a new gun and some cartridges I have for you," were only a few of the alleged occurrences she testified that made her life miserable.

Telegrams and letters between husband and wife, as introduced by Mrs. Brokaw's counsel, occupied a prominent part of yesterday's session. The entire bundle as exhibited represented about $10,000 in telegraph tolls, it was estimated.

The defendant's lawyer volunteered the explanation that Mr. Brokaw sent sometimes twenty to thirty messages a day, and that his wife replied with 200 and 300-word messages, which she marked 'collect."

"At Tours, after he had taken six or possibly more drinks, and after I pleaded with him not to act so, he abused me frightfully," testified Mrs. Brokaw. "He called me worse names than ever before and told me to get out of the car, as it belonged to him. I went to my room. He came up and forced me to go down to the dining-room. A physician sat nearby. Then he leaned over and said in a voice heard by several diners, 'I want you to stop looking at that man.'

"I begged him not to make a scene over nothing, and when he continued I went to my room. I became very ill. I locked the door and refused to let him into my room. Then he broke in the door. He said he was boss; that I would return to Paris early in the morning with him regardless of my illness."

Other narratives were told by the witness, culminating, she said, in his departing and leaving her without funds, with the remark that she could get back to America "any way she could." She subsequently met him in Paris, however.

THE FIRST COLD DAY.

Gainesville Experienced First Ice and Frost of Season Friday.

The people of Gainesville experienced the first natural ice and frost of the season Friday morning, when the temperature dropped to thirty-one degrees—one degree below freezing, according to the Government thermometer.

Local Weather Observer J. Hovey Bell stated that during the early morning the thermometer registered thirty-one, and as late as 7 o'clock, when the official record was taken, it was thirty-two degrees, which is the freezing point.

There was a heavy frost and considerable ice, but the absence of wind made it appear warmer than the previous day.

No damage is anticipated to vegetation, except possibly to beans, which are now at the tenderest stage of growth. The cold will prove rather a benefit to many crops, especially lettuce, of which there is a large acreage in this section.

Death of Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Malinda Johnson of Lake Butler, fifty-six years of age, died at the Odd Fellows' Sanitarium at 5 o'clock Thursday evening, the cause of death being a complication of diseases.

Deceased was an old resident of this county, and was well known here. She removed to Lake Butler, however, several years ago, where she has since made her home. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and a faithful and conscientious Christian.

Deceased leaves three daughters and two sons, to whom the sympathy of friends is extended.

Everything was in full blast when the party arrived, and the hospitality extended by the clever host made all feel that they were glad they went.

"Well, this is the first time I have been in the sheriff's office, and I have been living in Gainesville a long time," remarked James Doig, as he was invited into Sheriff Ramsey's office a day or two ago, when the weather was cool, and an inviting fire tempted him.

Mr. Doig, whom everybody in Alachua county and the city of Gainesville knows and looks upon as a friend, had actually put his foot into a sheriff's office for the first time in half a century, according to his own story.

"Tell me why you haven't been in this office, or the office of any of my long list of predecessors," remarked Sheriff Ramsey. "I am aware that you, or the majority of my predecessors, were good friends of yours, and I cannot understand it."

"Well," replied Mr. Doig, as he stretched out his lower limbs and toasted his feet before a cheerful fire, "it has been this: I have just been too busy to fool around the court house, and I never had any business with the sheriff or the courts, hence I didn't come. That's the only reason."

This is certainly a peculiar condition, since Mr. Doig is one of the pioneer citizens of this city. He came to Gainesville when there was nothing here but a cross-road store or two, a postoffice and a blackjack thicket where the deer used to roam. He was here long before the present elegant court house was constructed and, as he said, he had no business in the sheriff's office, therefore he kept away.

Mr. Ramsey appreciates the fact that he is the first sheriff upon whom Mr. Doig has ever made a personal call in the office.

DISTRICT DEPUTY WAS HERE.

The meeting of Gainesville Lodge No. 990, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, was honored Thursday night by the presence of District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler W. B. Thornton, who paid the lodge an official visit.

Owing to the fact that within the past few months the lodge has been meeting every other Thursday night, when members get the meeting nights confused, together with the fact that a number of Elks are absent from the city, the attendance was not as large as was desired, but Mr. Thornton accepted the situation as it was, and those who did attend thoroughly enjoyed his visit, as well as the brief but impressive address upon the occasion.

Thursday afternoon Mr. Thornton was taken around the city in an automobile by Col. Henry S. Chubb and others, when the party visited various places of interest.

The Graves' Pleased.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Graves of York, Nebraska, who have been regular winter residents of Gainesville for several years, and who built a home three years ago on West Court street, No. 308, are more than ever pleased with Florida this year.

Notwithstanding that he is accredit to having none too good health in the West, Mr. Graves laughs at this and says it is the "doctors' whims." But anyway, he declares that when he reaches his dear Southern sunny Florida home he begins to feel better right away, with the result that he enjoys his stay here—so does his friends and neighbors.

Clothiers Were Busy.

The clothing merchants were grinning yesterday, the cause being extra good business in the form of heavy underwear and overcoats. Most everybody who did not own an overcoat and "had the price" kept them busy, with the result that there was a rush. If overcoats had been on the stock market at this time, and were subject to immediate delivery, the exchange thermometer would have been advanced several notches.

AFTER RECKLESS DRIVERS.

The practice of reckless driving in the vicinity of the Atlantic Coast Line depot upon the arrival of trains has caused a great deal of indignation among the people, with the result that one well-known citizen, who was assisting a lady on the train Thursday, came near knocking one of the drivers down with a stick, so close did he come to being run over.

This nuisance has been in practice for some time, but recently, since the carriages have been soliciting business from the west side of the train, it has become worse than ever. The drivers have no regard for the safety of passengers and pedestrians, with the result that they drive up wildly without noticing where they are going or whom they inconvenience.

A short time ago a large city daily spoke of a man marrying his "widow's sister." We know that owing to the great variety some very queer matrimonial alliances are made, but this is the first time we ever knew that dead men married, for surely a man must be dead to have a widow. But perhaps the paper meant to say "deceased wife's sister" instead of "widow's sister."

ENGLAND'S POLITICAL CRISIS TOUCHES THE SOUTH.

Ex-Premier Balfour hopes to win the support of the cotton spinners of England for the Unionist cause in the extraordinary political contest which has been brought about by the rejection of the budget by the House of Lords, by suggesting that if a majority of Unionists are elected members of the House of Commons the government will come to the assistance of the spinners with an appropriation for extending the area of cotton production. This is a shrewd bid for the votes controlled by the cotton manufacturing interests. The cotton States of this country are thus brought into the great political fight which has been inaugurated in England, says The Savannah News.

Reports show that the cotton manufacturers of England have had a bad year. Of the eighty-two firms in the Lancashire district sixty-eight have lost money, the remaining fourteen having made a profit. Taken as a whole the loss of the spinning trade of the district was $1,199,515. Naturally the spinners are not in a happy frame of mind. The year is the worst the spinning trade of the district has experienced in twenty-five years.

But where is there to be found additional area for cotton cultivation? Does Mr. Balfour think that it is to be found in Africa or Asia or South America? Is it his purpose, if the Unionists are successful, to put English money in American lands and thus increase the area? A more detailed statement of his plans would be interesting.

It is probable that the English spinners are dissatisfied with prices of American cotton, that to the high prices they attribute their bad business this year. But haven't they made money in other years, and do they expect that every year will be a prosperous one? The cotton planter has his bad years and there is no reason why the spinner shouldn't also have bad years. Last year was an exceptionally good year for the spinners. We published an article the other day in which it was stated that for the fiscal year ending Nov. 1, J. & P. Coats Company, Ltd., otherwise known as the thread trust, announced profits amounting to $14,508,330, which was $3,900,000 more than the profits announced for the previous year. That is the company that, even this year, has no reason for wanting an additional acreage planted in cotton.

Will the English spinners bite at the bait Mr. Balfour has thrown to them? And if the Unionists should win it would be interesting to know where the English government would put money with the hope of bringing down the prices of cotton. There is no doubt that there are great areas in Asia, Africa and South America where cotton can be grown, but experience has demonstrated that nowhere can it be grown successfully in competition with the Southern States of this country. Therefore the cotton farmers of the South can watch the great political fight that has been begun in England without anxiety as to the result of it.

Conditions in the Boston customs service are such as to warrant a number of dismissals and reductions, and Edwin V. Curtis, whose nomination as Collector of Customs at Boston will go to the Senate next week, will make a thorough house-cleaning. Mr. Curtis conferred with the President and Secretary MacVeagh on Friday.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THE VALUE OF ONE GOOD MARE.

The value of a good breeding animal on the farm can scarcely be over-estimated. There is an ordinary looking mare near the writer's home that during 10 years has produced eight colts. Four of these colts have been sold for $765, and the other four, which the breeder still owns, are valued at $600, making a total of $1,365 worth of colts in 10 years. During all these years this old matron has earned her own keep by doing regular work and is again in foal at this time. With a few such mares on the farm the boll weevil need have no terror for the owner.—Raleigh (N. C.) Progressive Farmer.

In throwing out of court a case brought by Chas. H. Bush, an agent of the New York Life Insurance Co., against that concern, the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court declared that the suit was the result of collusion on the part of the plaintiff and defendant in an effort to have the law limiting new business of life insurance companies declared unconstitutional.

Reported that John D. Rockefeller proposes to present $25,000,000 to China. Perhaps the Standard Oil Co. has decided to move to the Orient if the Supreme Court upholds the recent decision.

Mothers find Perry Davis' Painkiller invaluable in the nursery, and it should be kept at hand in case of accident. For pain in the breast take a little Painkiller in sweetened milk and water, bathing the breast in it clear at the same time. If the milk passages are clogged, from cold, or other causes, bathing in the Painkiller will give immediate relief. Ask for New 35c bottle.

FAMILY CURED OF SKIN TROUBLES

Two Little Girls had Eczema Very Badly—In One Case Child's Hair Came Out and Left Bare Patches—Father's Head Sore from Childhood—In All Three Cases

CUTICURA MET WITH ITS USUAL SUCCESS

"I have two little girls who have been troubled very badly with eczema. One of them had it on her lower limbs. I did everything that I could hear of for her, but it did not give in until warm weather when it seemingly subsided. The next winter when it became cold weather the eczema started again and also in her head where it would take the hair out and leave bare patches as large as a quarter of a dollar. At the same time her arms were sore the whole length of them. I took her to a physician and he said that she had two distinct types of eczema. I continued with him for several weeks and the child grew worse all of the time. Her sister's arms were also affected in the same way. My husband came home one day with a box of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap. I began using them and also the Cuticura Pills and by the time the second lot was used their skin was soft and smooth as it had not been before for the winter. We keep the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment constantly by us and when any little roughness or irritation appears on their skin I quickly dispel it with the Cuticura Remedies. My husband has used them with most satisfactory results for a sore head which has troubled him from childhood. Mrs. Charles Baker, Albion, Me., Sept. 21, 1908."

Cuticura Ointment is one of the most successful remedies for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, of infants, children and adults, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with it, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed by mild doses of Cuticura Pills, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly humors, eczemas, irritations and inflammations, permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy cure when all else fails.

SAVED THE BEER!

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 10.—Fearing the 114 casks of beer held as the result of a raid on the back yard of the home of Alderman Toole might freeze, it has been moved to a house, having heretofore been in a jail yard. Judge Armstead Brown, of the criminal court, made the order.

FROM MONTANA TO FLORIDA.

Homeseeker Walked This Entire Distance to Settle in This State.

HAW CREEK, Fla., Dec. 10.—Tired and travel worn but hale and hearty a stranger of apparently middle age has arrived in Haw Creek after a walk all the way across the country from the highland sheep ranges of Montana in the far Northwest. Accompanied only by the faithful collie which had shared the life on the range with him he made the trip to Florida to claim a new home on Haw Creek, in St. Johns county.

When he arrived he went to the office of the St. Johns Development Company at Omega and gave his name as Ehwin. He produced well-worn papers showing that he held the title for a forty-acre tract which he had purchased on the creek.

He was tired but was talkative and attracted much attention. The story which he told is full of interest. For many years he has followed the occupation of sheep herder on the ranges of Montana. During blizzards that cut through fur-lined slickers and trousers and make one's feet feel like blocks of ice despite many pairs of woolen socks, cow-hide boots and buckskins, he had driven great herds of sheep which depended upon him alone to guide them through the blinding snow.

"To be sure," he said, "one is well paid for such work, but—," he thought sunny Florida would be better.

At any rate he and his companion, a faithful black collie, which had shared the blizzards and the storms on the range with him, walked all the way across the country to the new home in the Southland.

"Florida is just the place for me," he assured those who have talked with him. He is busy clearing stumps preparatory to putting in his first crop. The determination shown by him to become a resident of this section indicates that he is going to make a good citizen and he is welcomed here. Many are taking a great deal of interest in his story, which is fully borne out.

Alachua Good Enough.

S. D. Mikell, a well-known farmer of the West End, was in the city from Trenton Friday. Mr. Mikell recently decided to sell his property and remove to South Florida, but after a trip through that section by team, when he investigated everything thoroughly, he decided that Alachua county, where he has lived and thrived and reared a family, was good enough for him—so he will remain on his farm and among his friends at Trenton.

Woltz, partners doing business as Wellington & Woltz, I have levied upon and will sell at public outcry before the court house door, in said county and State, on Monday, the 3rd day of January, A. D. 1910, during the legal hours of sale, to the highest and best bidder therefor, for cash, the following described personal property, towit:

EX-CONGRESSMAN MEEKISON COMMENDS PE-RU-NA.

"I have used several bottles of Peruna and I feel greatly benefited thereby from my catarrh of the head. I feel encouraged to believe that if I use it a short time longer I will be fully able to eradicate the disease of thirty years' standing."—David Meekison.

OTHER REMARKABLE CASES.

Mr. Jacob L. Davis, Galena, Stone county, Mo., writes: "I have been in bad health for thirty-seven years, and after taking twelve bottles of your Peruna I am cured." Mr. C. N. Peterson, 132 South Main St., Council Bluffs, Iowa, writes: "I cannot tell you how much good Peruna has done me. Constant confinement in my store began to tell on my health, and I felt that I was gradually breaking down. I tried several remedies, but obtained no permanent relief until I took Peruna. I felt better immediately, and five bottles restored me to complete health."

A SINCERE RECOMMENDATION.

Mr. D. C. Prosser, Bravo, Allegan Co., Mich., writes: "Two years ago I was badly afflicted with catarrh of the stomach. I had had a run of typhoid fever, was very depleted. I could find nothing I could eat without causing distress and sour stomach. Finally I came to the conclusion that I had catarrh of the stomach and seeing Peruna advertised, began to take it. It helped me soon, and after taking three or four bottles I was entirely cured of stomach trouble, and can now eat anything."

If the heater is a

Turn the wick as high or low as it will go—there's no danger, no smoke, no smell—just an emphatic raising of temperature. The is a permanent check upon carelessness, making the heater safe in the hands of a child. Burns nine hours with one filling, heats all parts of a room quickly.
